END OF WORLD.

Is Due This Month, and Ascension Robes are Being Prepared.

Believing the prophecy of one of their number that the world will come to an end before the month of October has passed, a band of Second Adventists, who reside in numbers near the border of Susquehanna and Bradford counties Pa., are now busily engaged preparing for the event.

Many farmers of this faith have turned their stock out on the hillsides, deserted their farms and homes and joined the camp of Second Adventists.

Others have refused to work or garner their crops, believing it would be wrong in view of the proximity of the world's end. Some of the Adventists spend all day at camp, praying and listening to the exhortations of their leaders, and return at night to their homes.

A few of the more sanguine believers are making robes of ascension. Other farmers alarmed at the rapid spread of the prophecy, are endeavoring to dissuade the Adventists from the belief, but so far their efforts have met with rebukes, and in some cases the would-be pacifiers have been driven out of the camp.—Ex

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquidifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. F. S. McLaughlin, Hampton, Ga. "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal."

The Wayland Homestead give the following condition of crops on the sand ridge in Clark county, Mo.

"The corn on the sand ridge is getting nearly thirty feet high with an ear at each joint. It is feared that the ears can't mature because the stalks take up so much room, and if they do the corn will have to be shelled at the saw mills as ordinary elevators can't handle their size. Then there are those big apple trees hanging full of juicy fruit, cabbage as big as a Colorado mountain, watermelon vines running so fast that the boys can't keep up, and everybody is getting as fat as Col. Shouse (the Colonel had to quit eating). Even the mosquitoes are as big as quails and are so hungry for lean meat that when a fellow came back from Ohio, he had to be kept in a wire cage a few days to prevent the mosquitoes from eating him up—bones and all."

America's Famous Beauties.

Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one, who use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glories the face. Eczema or Salt Rheum vanishes before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains, itchy feet, Piles. 25c at Perry & Thomas' drug store.

Graceful Women

The scent of the violet or rose is as precious as the lovely flowers whose breath they are, and while the lives of flowers are brief and we can only enjoy them for a day, the beautiful woman gives the pleasure of her fragrance to us as a permanent blessing. The soft fragrance of a beautiful woman suggests purity, health and elegance; she is the refinement of civilization; an index always of good taste and an unerring badge of gentility.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

In regulating the lunar periods in women permits of no wrinkles, pale cheeks or tortuous nerves and shapeless figures. It is Nature's remedy. The druggist may offer something else and call it "just as good" but the menstrual organs will not be deceived, and permanent injury may result. Try our Regulator. Of all druggists $1. Our treatise on "Woman" mailed free. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Steel Ties.

A special from New York says railroad managers and steel manufacturers are freshly interested in experiments with steel ties. This is not a new subject, but it is steadily increasing in importance, and as time elapses without any satisfactory substitute being found for wood ties it is likely to become really of moment. More than 100,000,000 ties are annually required by the railroads for their 200,000 miles of roadbed, and to supply this enormous quantity there is yearly sacrificed the equivalent of a forest one mile wide reaching from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

As the necessity for finding a substitute because more urgent inventive genius may be expected to rise accordingly. Close observers of this situation are persuaded that it is but a question of a short time only until some manner of satisfactory steel railroad tie shall be produced. Experiments have been going on for several years until recently they were conducted in a more or less indifferent manner. Railroad managers assisted by steel manufacturing interests have now taken the subject up in a most serious spirit.

A great fortune awaits the man who will produce an available railroad tie of steel. The Pennsylvania and several other large systems at one time or another have tried steel ties, but without success. The invariable difficulty is that the steel tie is too unyielding and rigid, thus causing excessive wear of rolling gear. New designs in steel are now at a premium, and as this becomes more widely known the versatile American brain, it is believed, will prove equal to the occasion. The introduction of steel ties will prove a great thing for the steel industry, hence the active interest of steel manufacturers. Experiments are now being undertaken with a view to the increasing necessity of the situation. The question has engaged the earnest attention of some of the most skillful men in the railroad world as well as in the big steel shops.

The Oil Field.

A new oil field has been opened in Bath county by the finding at a depth of 480 feet of a flow of oil said to be green, in a well drilled on the Embury land near Olympian Springs. A twelve foot layer of sand similar to that in the Ragland field was struck, then a thin layer of soapstone just above the oil. Another well was drilled on an adjoining farm which showed a small percentage of green oil. The St. Louis Oil Co., in which citizens of Montgomery county are interested has the lease on this land and the above are the only two wells they have drilled. Mr. W. B. White, of this city, is manager of the company.—Mt. Sterling Dem.

Look Out For Fever.

Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties give tone and strength to the glands.

Goes Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist T. T. Smith of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from throat and lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and Perry & Thomas guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Reg. signs, 50c and $1.

BONE FOOD

Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth. Bones must have bone food, blood must have blood food and so on through the list.

Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses every day give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.

Bow legs become straighter, loose joints grow stronger and firmness comes to the soft heads.

Wrong food caused the trouble. Right food will cure it. In thousands of cases Scott's Emulsion has proven to be the right food for soft bones in childhood.

The Farmer Pays the Tariff.

Experience with the Coal Trust and the beef barons, "merger" inclines readers to an attitude of philosophic doubt concerning the promise of the new $90,000,000 Harvester Trust of "substantial benefits both to consumer and manufacturer"—the consumer being the American farmer, whose welfare is the basis of our prosperity.

The "economies in production" of which trust promoters in this case say so much will in this case be realized. They are already indicated in the prospective "laying off" of 10,000 salesmen and many clerks, martyrs to prosperity. But the merger makers, not the public, will get the benefit.

With the Dingley duty of 20 per cent. on farm machinery the American market is controlled by American makers. Our factories, the biggest in the world, have combined to exact the last penny of tribute at home while marketing their surplus abroad at lower rates. Already we sell more than $16,000,000 worth of farm machinery per year in other countries—more than a million dollars worth each to Great Britain, Russia, France, Germany and Argentina about a million in Australia and smaller quantities elsewhere.

The American farmer pays the tariff; the foreign buyer of farm machinery gets the benefit of the only "competition" it leaves possible.—New York World.

What Burgoo Really Means.

The word "burgoo," the full meaning of which all Kentuckians will vow they understand, is further elucidated by Mr. Young E. Allison in an article in the Insurance Field. Mr. Allison digs down into derivation of the noun and places a construction on the word which the most expert of burgoo connoisseurs may not have seized. Mr. Allison says:

"The announcement of the burgoo for the entertainment of local agents at the National Association meeting in Louisville has uncovered on the part of the press a State of innocence as to what a burgoo actually is. We call it innocence as distinct from ignorance, especially when such a noble guess is made as to its meaning as that which proceeds from the Weekly Underwriter. We had thought, however, that the word 'burgoo' was well understood everywhere. It is derived from the low Latin burgus, fortified (as a town) and goo-goo, very good. Hence the word 'burgoo'; something very good, fortified with other good things," as will be found in Carey's "Dictionary of Double Derivations."

Burgoo is literally a soup composed of many vegetables and meats delectably used together in an enormous cauldron, over which at the exact moment a rabbit's foot at the end of a blue yarn string is properly waved by a colored preacher, whose salary has been paid to date.

Our contemporary is wrong in supposing that the natural juices of Kentucky grains enter into the compounding of the burgoo. These are the good things by which the burgoo is fortified, but like all fortifications they properly lie outside the thing to be fortified. They are therefore laid in before and after the burgoo, and there are epicures who lay them in enduring of the burgoo; but the practice is not universal. The Baptists decry it as diluting the water of the soup too much. The Methodists are divided, and the Episcopalians leave it entirely to individual decision.

Tetter, Salt-Rheum and Eczema.

The intense itching and smarting incident to these diseases is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites and chronic sore eyes. 25c. per box.

Dr. Cad's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not food but medicine and the best in use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 25 cents per package.

"Be instant in season and out of season" is a motto worthy of any man who advertises. In the dull season one who has things to sell has need of all the trade he can get. He may deem it prudent to cut down his pace somewhat but if he be wise will not let his advertisement disappear altogether. Like the sun, the advertisement should be seen every day in the year.—Printers' Ink.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.

Of Galveston, Texas. "Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself as well as help others with this great women's remedy. Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Thedford's Black-Drainage should be used.
